10th—Record “Singles Day” In 1949 RCA introduced the ‘single’ (a 7” diameter 45 rpm record) in the U.S. A single could play 8 minutes of sound per side!  23rd—The coldest Day in US History was in 1971. The temperature in Prospect Creek, Alaska was recorded at 80 degrees BELOW zero!	30th—Soap Operas Why are they called soaps? Among their 1st major sponsors of the serials were soap manufactures... Proctor & Gamble, Colgate-Palmolive, and Lever Brothers. Eventually, due to the fact that so many sponsors were soap manufactures, the media started calling these shows “soap operas”!
