

eventide
Hospice

Our medical directors work hand in hand with physicians to develop a plan for optimum pain relief and symptom management, while ensuring dignity and honor are delivered with the utmost quality, compassion and excellence.

A professional headshot of a middle-aged man with short, dark brown hair, smiling slightly. He is wearing a dark pinstriped suit jacket, a white dress shirt, and a diagonally striped tie in shades of blue, grey, and white. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

Throughout Nebraska, Eventide Hospice Medical Director Dr. Kevin Reichmuth oversees medical care for Eventide Hospice patients. His great passion for end-of-life care reaches far beyond Eventide.

- > With 30 years of extensive experience and board certification in critical care and internal, sleep and pulmonary medicine, he is a vital part of the Eventide Hospice team.
- > He served in the military for more than 30 years and is a retired colonel and state surgeon for the Nebraska Army National Guard.
- > In addition to his role at Eventide, he is on staff at Nebraska Pulmonary Specialties.
- > Reichmuth is a member of several healthcare organizations, including the American Medical Association and the American Thoracic Society.
- > Throughout his medical career, he has written several publications that have appeared in prestigious national journals such as the American Geriatrics Society.

Grand Island | Kearney Area
308.389.6002

Dr. Heather Fago, M.D.

Eventide Hospice Associate Medical Director
York and Grand Island Area

Dr. Jeffry Marple, M.D.

Eventide Hospice Associate Medical Director
Lincoln and Surrounding Areas

- > Dr. Fago received her Bachelor of Science (BS) in Chemistry and Spanish from Nebraska Wesleyan University. She went on to attend Ross University School of Medicine in Florida where she earned her Doctor of Medicine (MD) in 2004. After graduating from medical school, she completed her Family Medicine residency at Lincoln Family Medicine Program. She is board certified in Family Medicine.
- > After graduating residency, she and her husband moved to York, Nebraska. She worked at the York Medical Clinic doing full spectrum Family Medicine for six years.

- > Dr. Marple received his undergraduate education at Baylor University in Texas and his Doctor of Medicine (MD) from the University of Oklahoma in 1987. He then went on to serve as Chief Resident of Internal Medicine at the University of Oklahoma and entered a fellowship at University of Kansas Medical Center.
- > After graduation, he specialized in Nephrology, serving patients in California and most recently in Lincoln.

Eventide values the philosophy of hospice and working to bring peace and comfort to clients and their families in their final months.

Eventide provides a comprehensive hospice program, including:

- > Support for physical, emotional, social and spiritual needs
- > 24/7 availability for consultation and urgent visits
- > Coordination of medication, medical equipment and supplies
- > Personal care needs and companionship provided by hospice aides and volunteers
- > Assistance to honor and carry out end-of-life wishes
- > Personalized Veteran services
- > Bereavement services for all loved ones during and after hospice care, including supportive grief groups and reference materials

Eventide Hospice Team Approach

